September Recap at 2313...

Back to reality...

Beautiful weather and incredible people attended the annual R&R Conference. Adios Cancun, Mexico. Next year's destination spot will soon be revealed!

Daily, we are collecting bottles and cans to be returned for a cash refund. All of these proceeds contribute to our growing fund for Operation Smile. Creating smiles, one day at a time

2313 Inc. Named to 101 Best and Brightest Companies to Work For in Metropolitan Detroit!

On September 17, 2015, 2313 Inc., was recognized as one of Detroit's Best and Brightest Companies to Work For" for 2015. This annual competition honors organizations that display a commitment to high achievement in human resource and employee enrichment practices.

"It was exciting to receive the Best and Brightest Award and to be recognized among the select group that received this elite award," said Ken Lear, Manager at 2313 Inc. Out of the 150 companies honored in the Metropolitan Detroit area, only 12 met the qualifications required to earn an Elite award. 2313 Inc. was awarded the Elite Award for Employee Achievement and Recognition.

This outstanding achievement earned special attention from the media and recognition from the audience. Lear expressed his enthusiasm about 2313 Inc.'s significant achievement during a featured interview with Devin Scillian, Channel 4 News reporter and a co-host for the event, in front of 300 guests and community members. "I was excited to share what works for us and more importantly to accept an award on behalf of our team. We work really hard to point out what people do right and not what they do wrong," Lear added.

The Best and Brightest programs is represented by the National Association for Business Resources (NABR), an organization committed to educating and empowering businesses in the United States through its innovative programs, dynamic reports, and specialized research.

Performing as a service organization, the Best and Brightest programs improve company performance through their use of informative data, performance options, resource actions, and tools that enhance actionable data and improve outcomes.

Recipients of this coveted honor are dedicated to success for both their clients and their employees.

They're measured on their achievements in areas such as communication, diversity, employee education, recognition, retention, and work-life balance.

Local journalists Tom Jordan from WWJ Newsradio 950 and Devin Scillian from WDIV Local 4 News presented the awards. The event began in the morning with a full breakfast and featured presentations from experts in a variety of business fields.

Guests had ample opportunity during the event to network and explore various exhibit galleries.

2313 Inc. has been recognized for their steady growth, progressive internal practices, and superlative service to their Fortune 500 clientele in their local community. The company is focused on developing personal and professional skills within their team. Staff members at 2313 Inc. don't simply have a job. They have the opportunity and support required to build a long and successful career.
